OUR WORLD WITHIN A WORLD

To this year's graduating class, the world here at Mona Shores is about to end. They are soon to pass to a world with greater goals, and mightier futures. This world, our world, at Mona Shores will slowly fade into the past, leaving memories

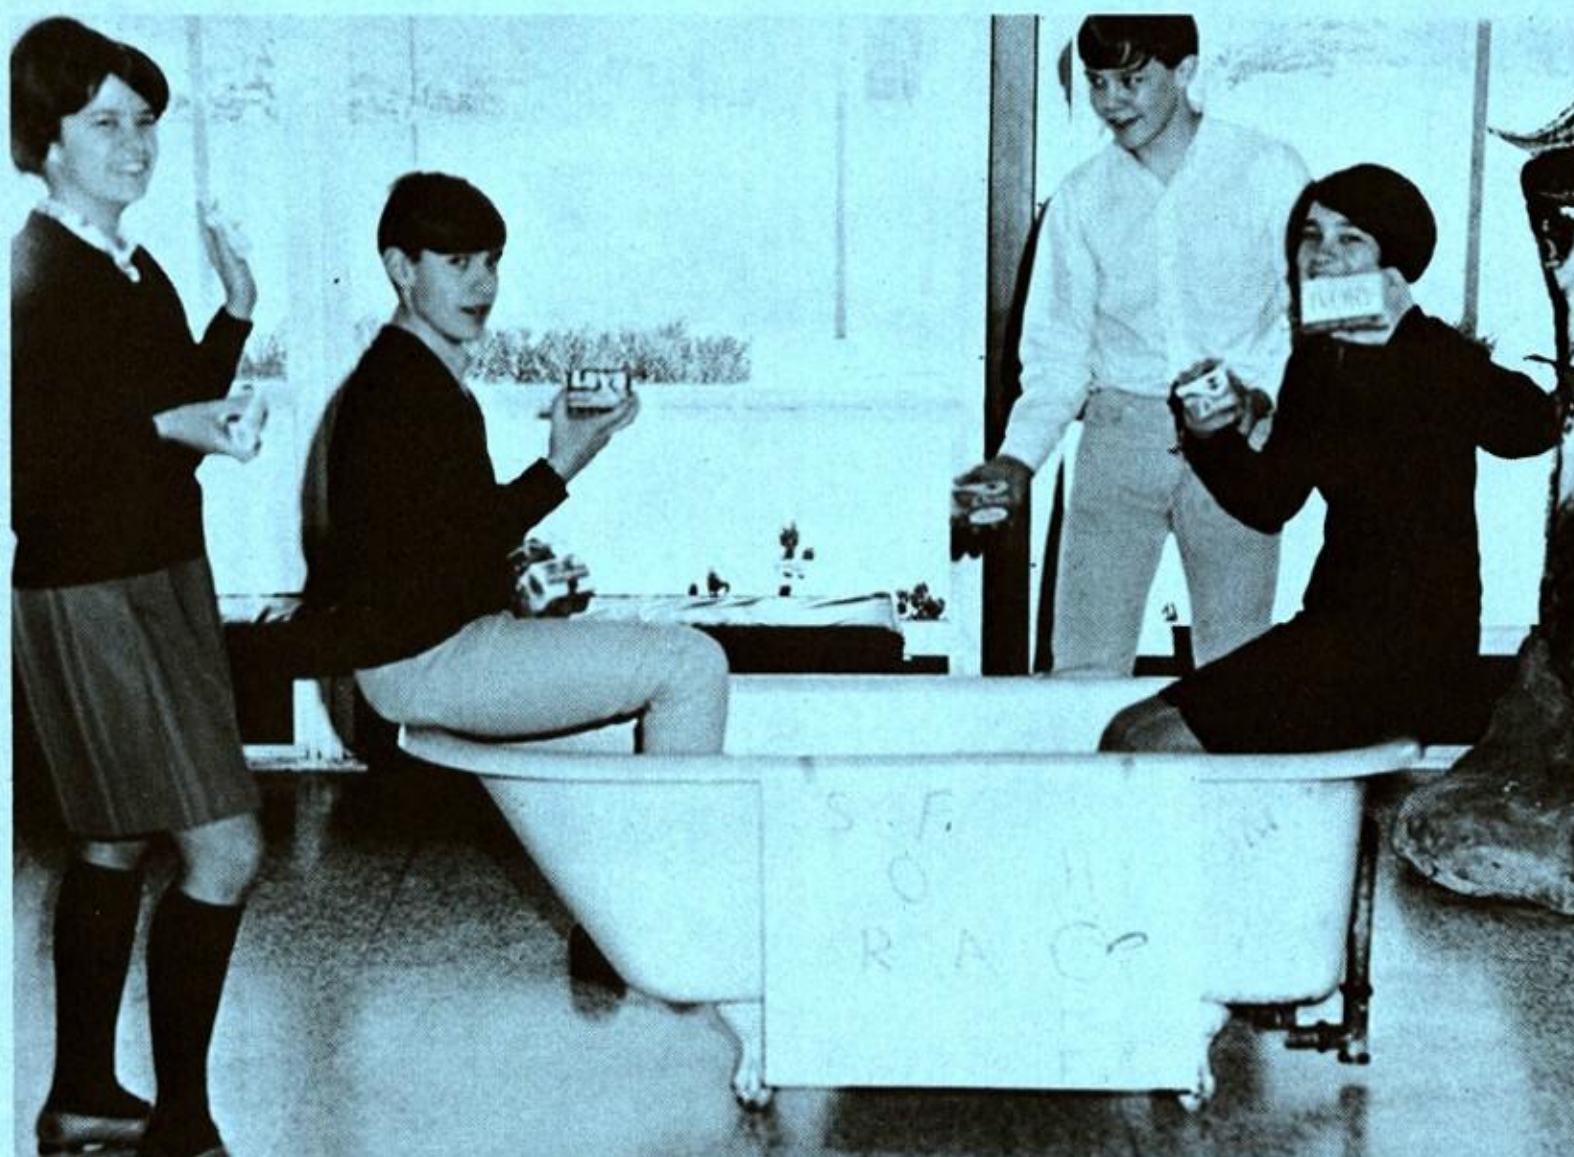

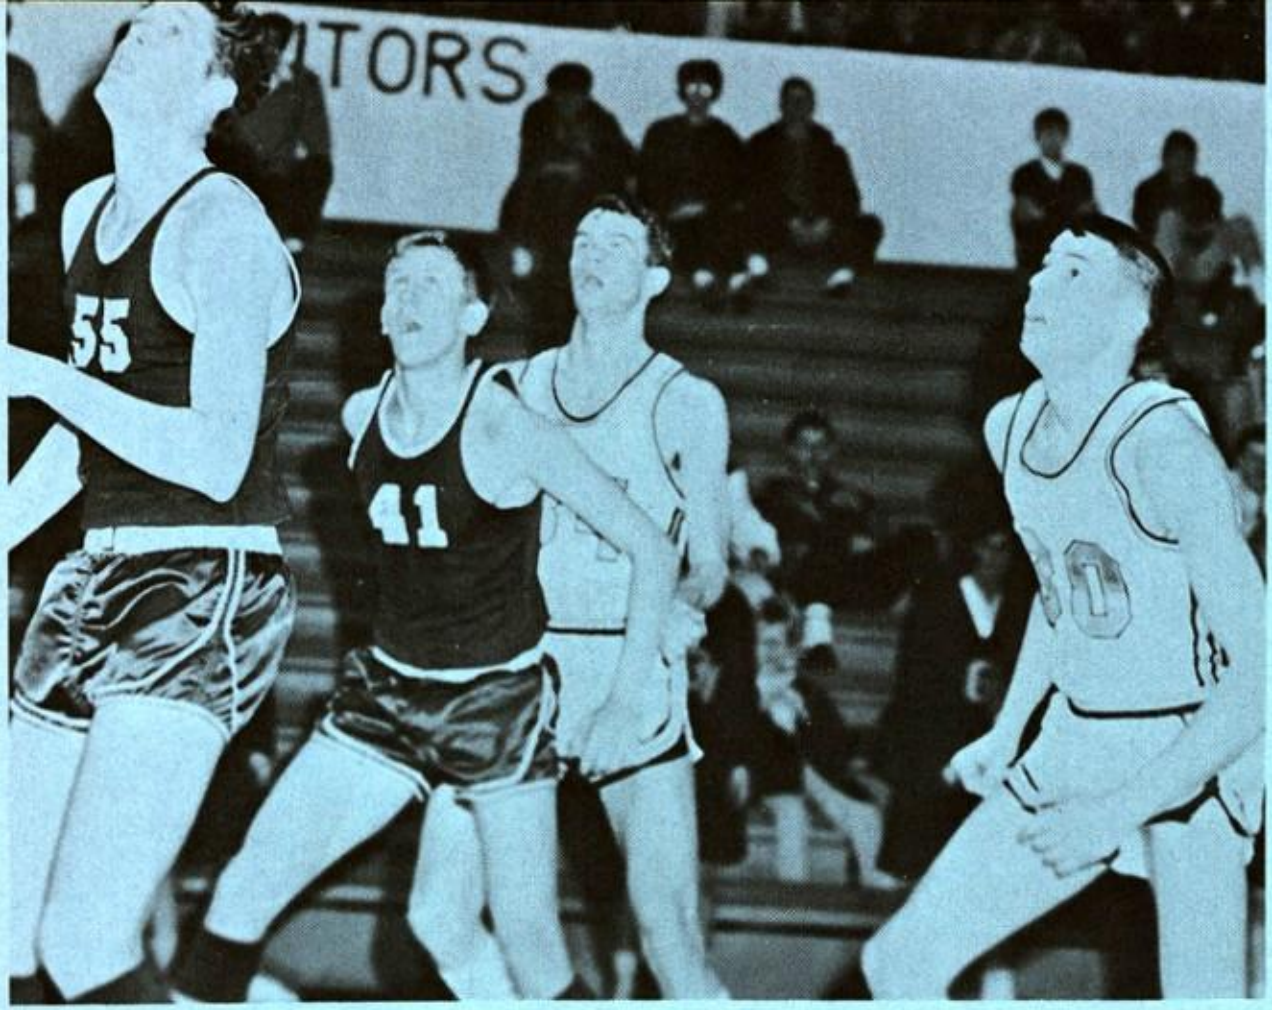

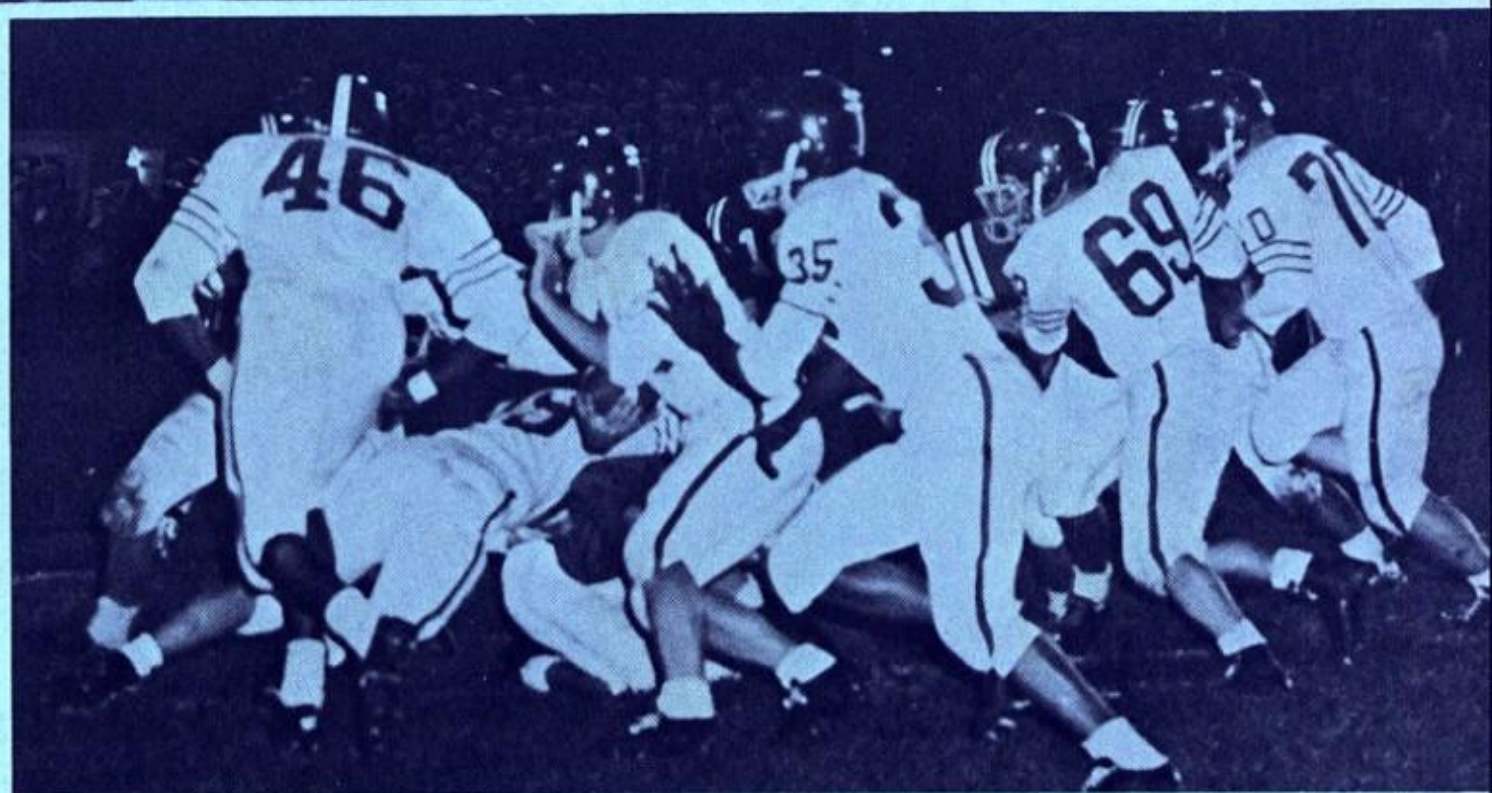

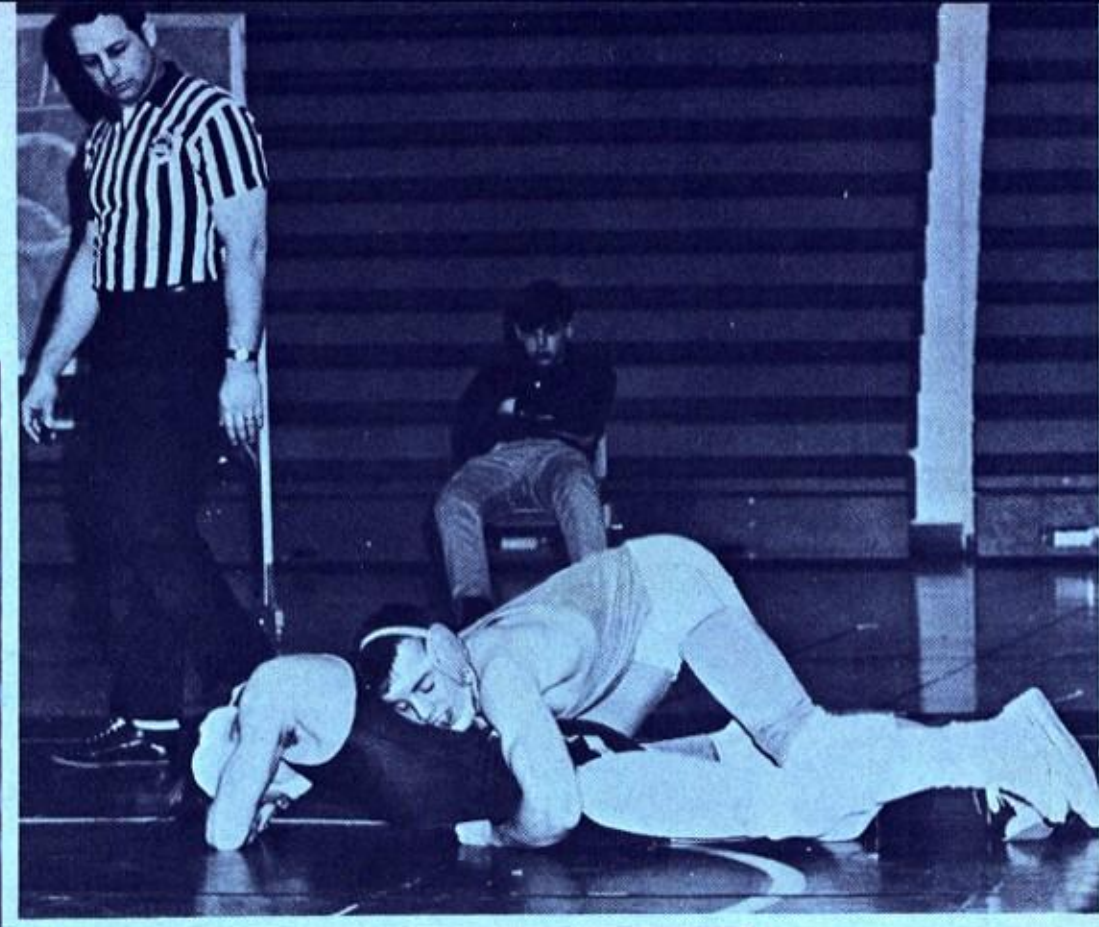

FRESHMEN FUN

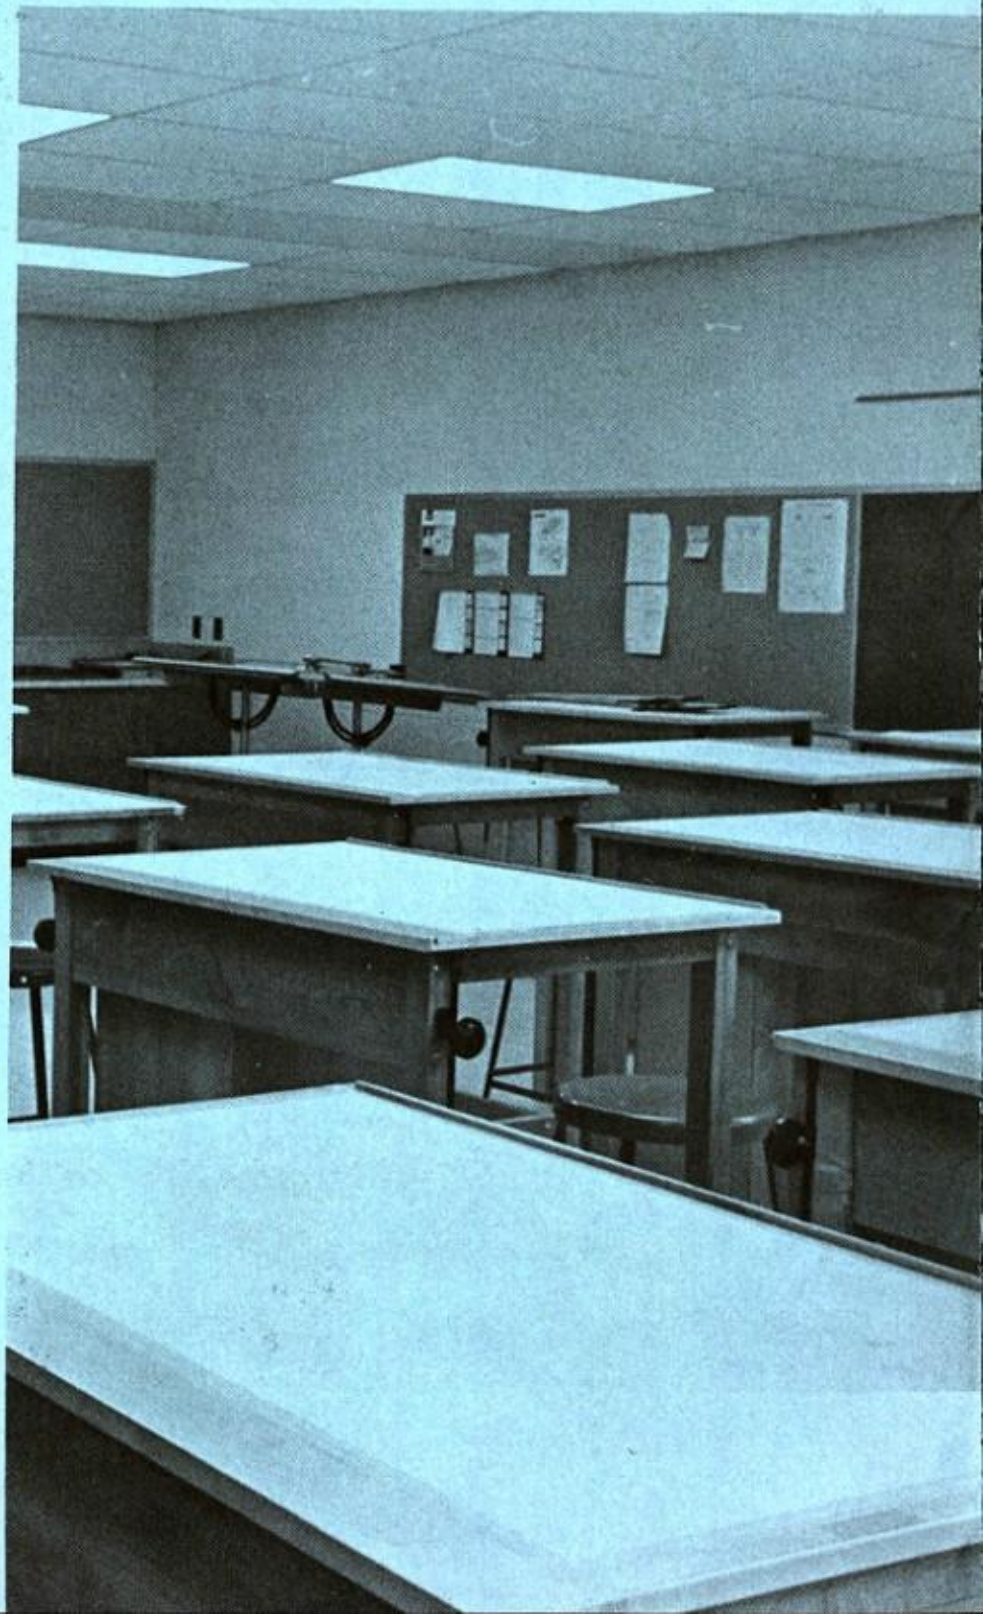

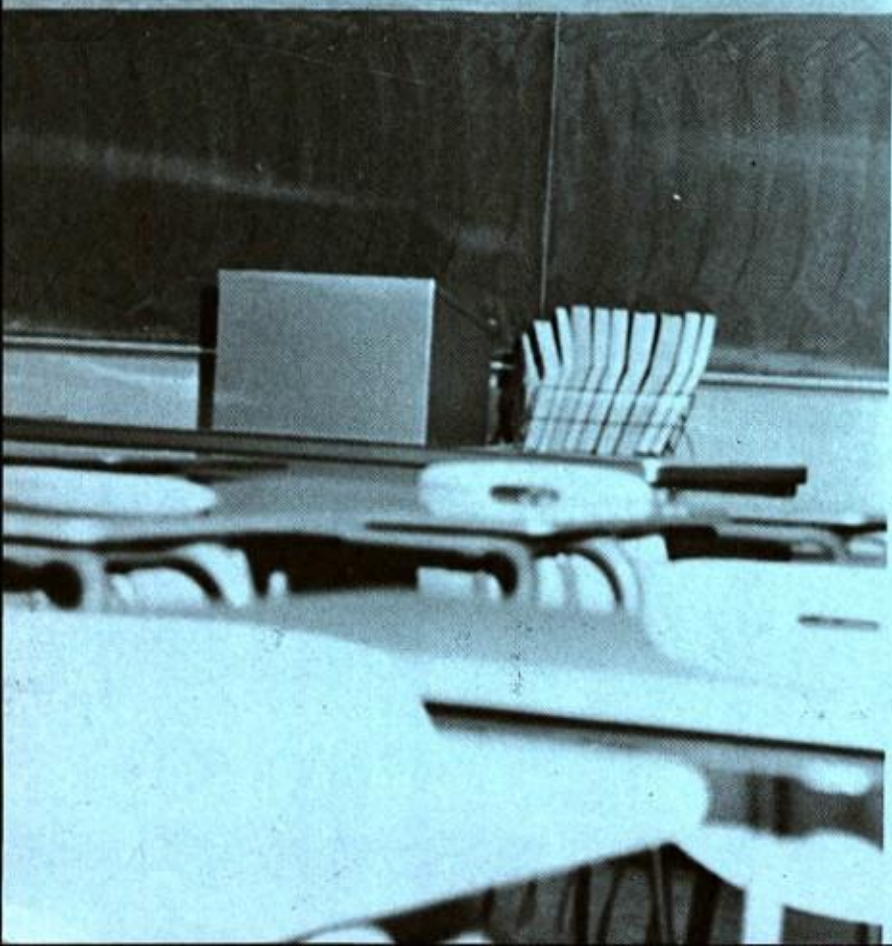

On Saturday, February 19, 1966, eighteen freshmen contributed one Saturday to helping the yearbook staff complete photographs for the final deadline of the "Compass Points." The photographers took many candid shots of the freshmen in their lighter moments. These include promoting the Soap For Hope campaign.

introducing. . . . THE YEARBOOK

A word of warning to you are about to turn the pages of the 1966 Compass Points. What you are about to see on these pages will bare little resemblance to the things which you have been accustomed to seeing in a high school yearbook, a Mona Shores High School Yearbook, anyway. The changes we have made, we feel, were made for the better. Some of them you will like. Others you may not. Perhaps you will not even understand why changes had to be made at all. It is for this reason that we now attempt to explain why this book was created in this manner. It is only fair to you, the reader and owner of this book.

In all honesty, it must be said that at the beginning of the year we had every intention of publishing the kind of yearbook that had become traditional at Mona Shores High School—a conventional, unexciting book, one that would be indistinguishable from previous ones in tone, appearance, and context. That would have been the safest, easiest and perhaps the least expensive way out, especially considering the amount of work that had been already done toward completing that book.

We have attempted to bring to life on these pages, not only the events and experiences which make high school what it is, but the individuals who make them happen. We have attempted to recreate and reveal as truthfully as possible a small part of what high school means to every high school student.

It was evident from the very beginning that the people who shared our progressive views about the 1966 yearbook were very few in number. We sincerely hope that you who have any serious misgivings about this book will, after thumbing through its pages, change your minds.

With a mixture of apprehension and pride the 1966 Compass Points staff presents its "brainchild."

The first graduation at Mona Shores was held on June 10, 1965. The sunny Thursday saw 327 students graduate. The event was a memorable one.

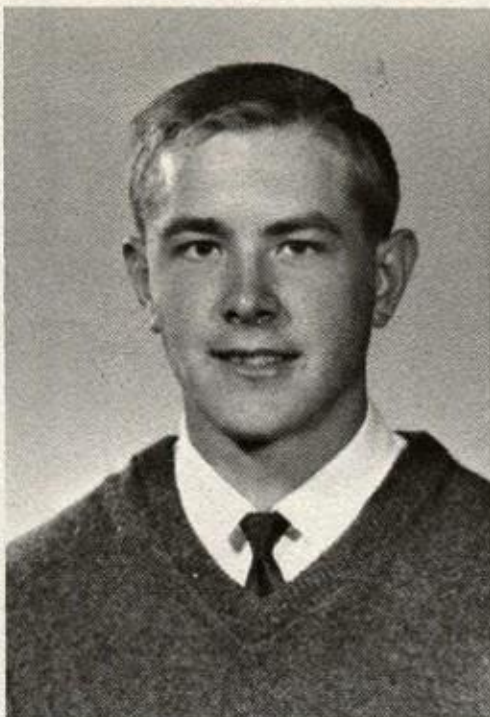

Poseidon's Paradise

Saturday night, May 29, 1965 was a night well remembered by many Mona Shores students. "Poseidon's Paradise," the prom, was hosted by the Junior Class on this date. An underwater theme was chosen.

JUNIOR CLASS

During the 1965-66 year the Junior Class and its officers were quite busy.

Class rings were ordered from the Josten Company and arrived early in the fall.

Blue and white Mona Shores emblem sweatshirts were sold all through the year and are a major factor in pulling the class successfully out of the red.

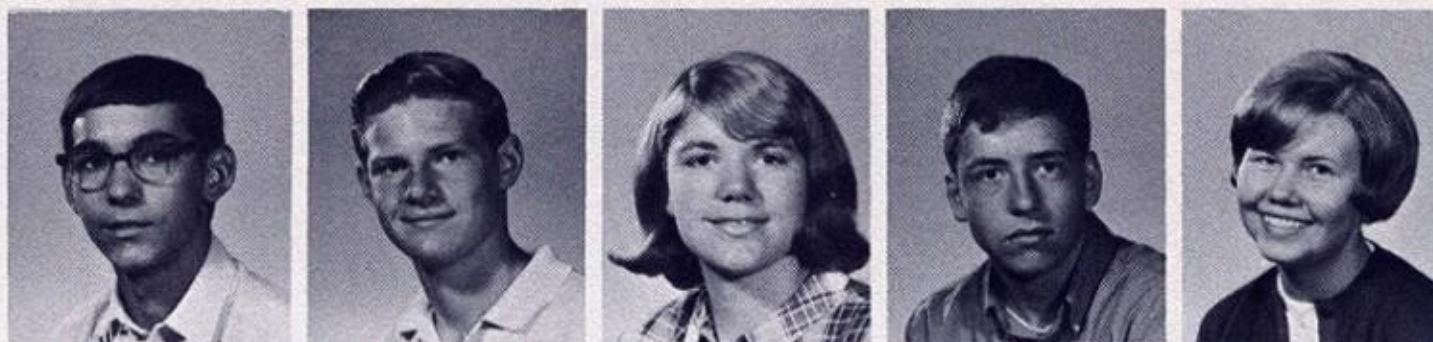

The Viet Nam Kool-Aid project was won by the class of '67. Bullwinkle Moose was their representative. The Kool-Aid was sent to Viet Nam to the armed forces to improve the taste of the water.

"Twilight in the Orient" was the name of the prom sponsored by the Junior Class. The sweatshirts and taffy apples sold during the year financed the prom which was held Saturday night, May 28.

The class officers are Linda Deater, president; Dave Stein, vice-president; Marcia Huttinga, treasurer; and Sharie Gilbert, secretary.

Class advisors are Mr. Donald Mosley and Mr. John Halloran.

Leading the freshman to another win in basketball is Grant Gillaspy.

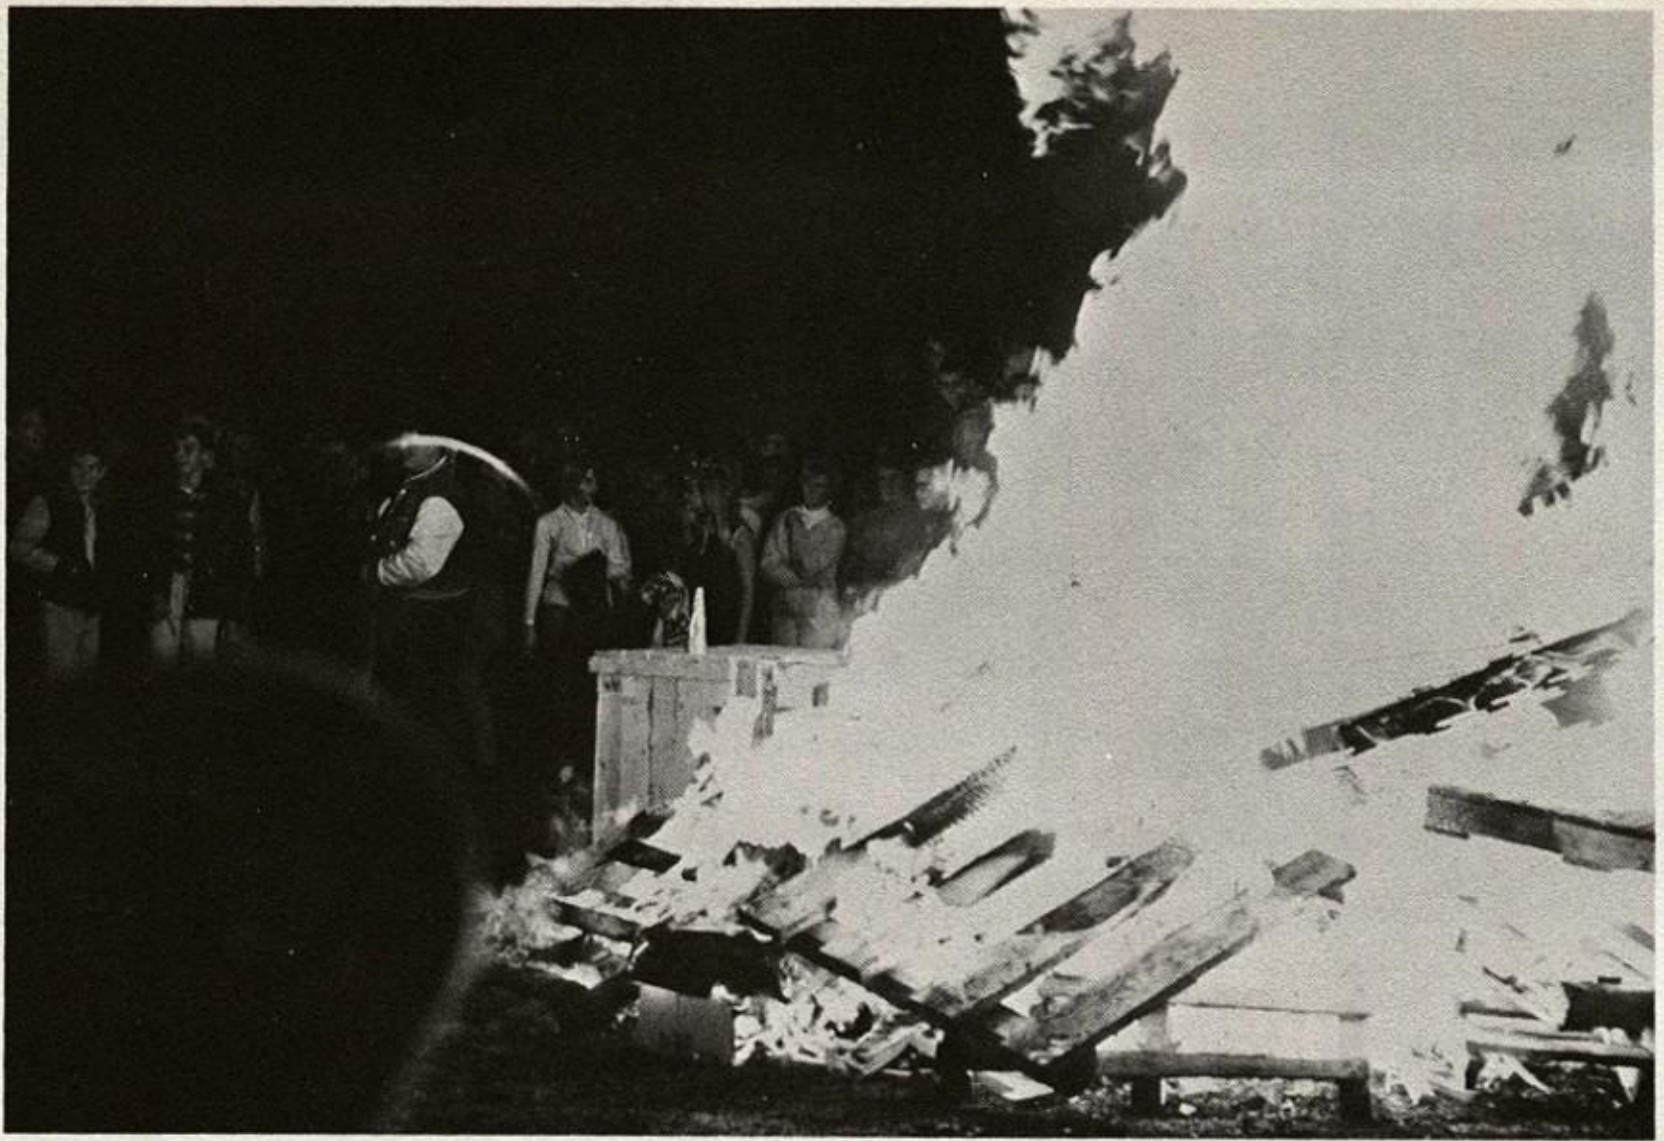

One of the many activities that go on during the summer that students are interested in is the driver's training program offered here each summer.

Running in the three-legged race in the Sailor-Ympics are Gunnel Karlsson and Dick Flowers.

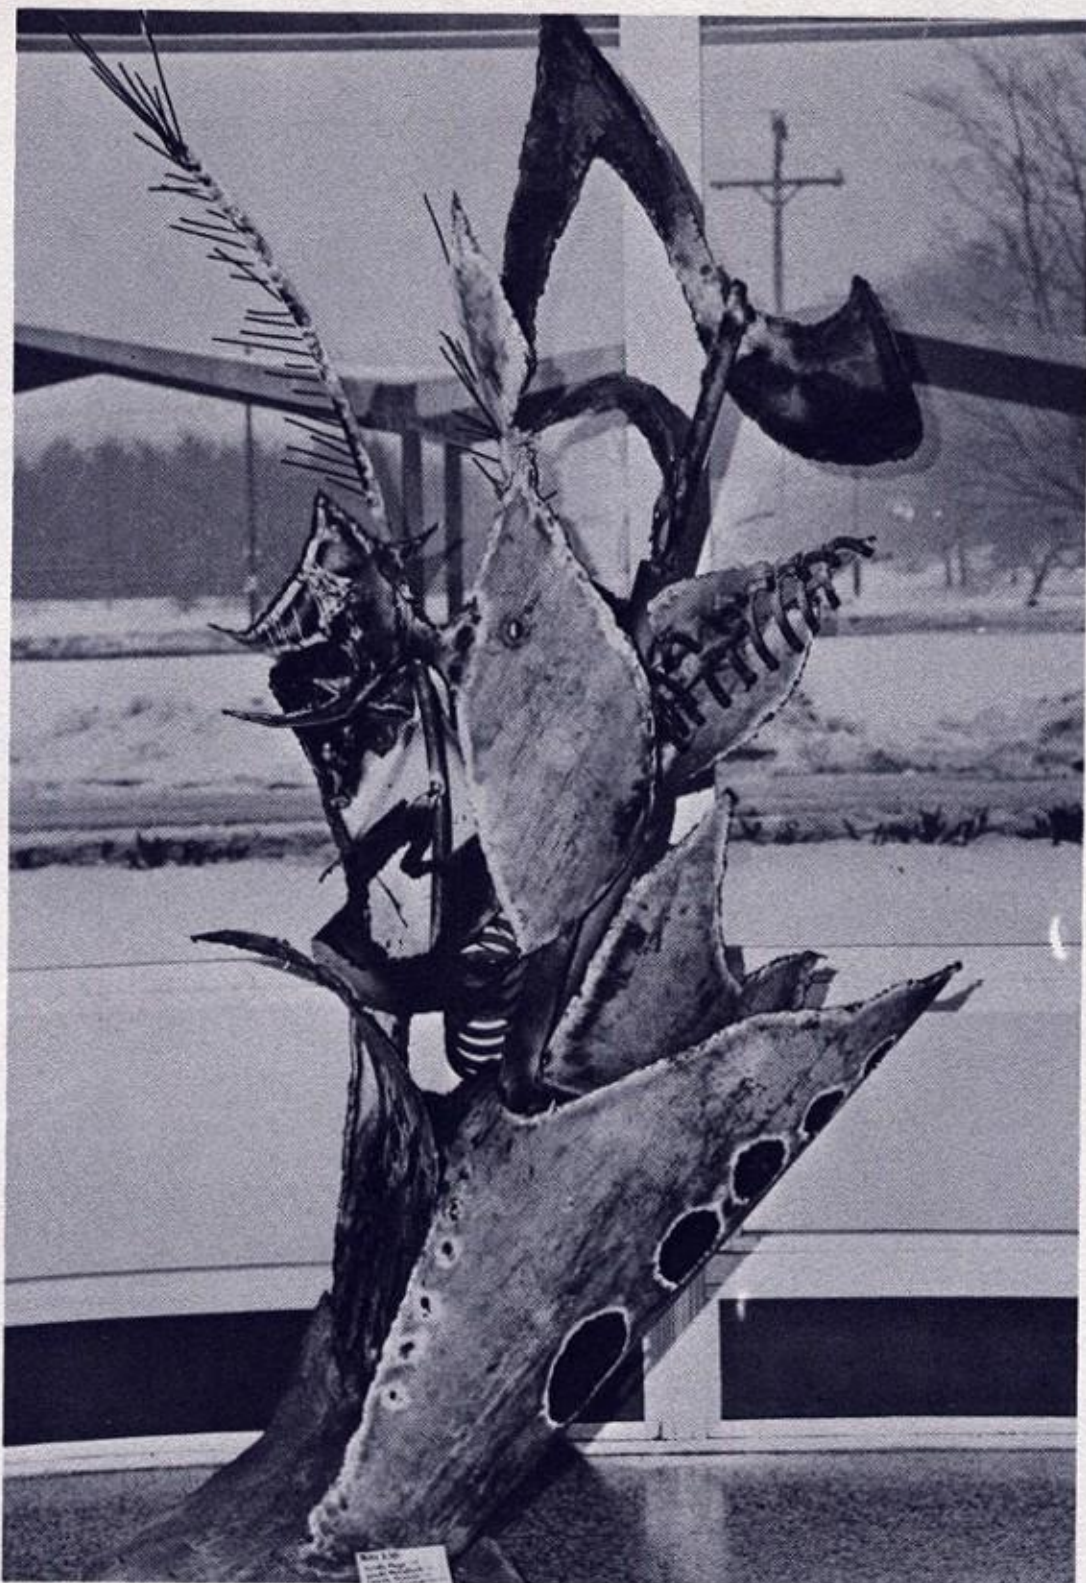

The Mona Shores Office is often crowded in the early morning hours.

A bonfire pep rally was held before the Orchard View football game.

The Sailor-Ympics was held Thursday, January 20, after the first semester exams.

"Nite Life" is the name of this Structure that stood in front of this office last January and February. It was made by the combined efforts of Linda Mayo, Linda McCullah, Celest Thomas, and Marge Verschuren.

Dick Flowers, Gunnel Karlsson, Mary Shoener, Tim Sorchy, Al Cherry, and Ilene Mason show how much easier it is to use three legs instead of four. This event took place at the Sailor-ympics.

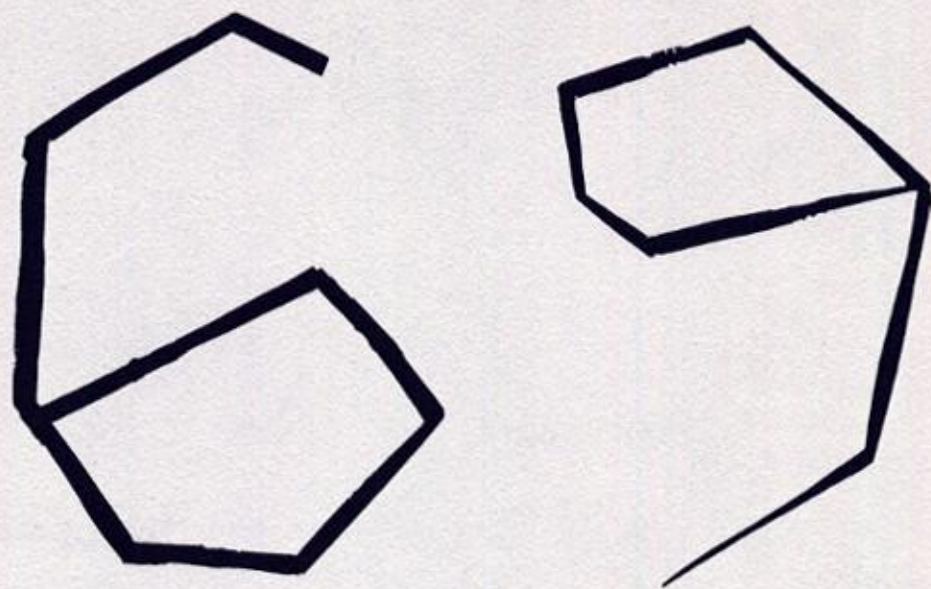

Attending Mona Shores High School during the annual city schools Exchange Day.

Admiring the Michigan State Flag which was a gift to the school by the Class of '65 are: Paula Meyers, Jim Coston, Sue Hitchcock, and Tammy Guerne; Sophomore class officers.

The STAGE BAND is another facet of our large, very talented music department at MS.

Members of the band practice on their own time, although they are under the direction of Mr. John Butterfield, MS band director.

The STAGE BAND has performed at such events as the student stage productions of "Bye Bye Birdie" and "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay", and also at many banquets, dances, and many junior high functions.

"GOOD YEARS"

Man's progress is measured by his ability to substitute machinery for his own muscle.

Today our progress potential is almost infinite. Its only limit will be the capacity of our young people to forge new and better ways to do the world's work. Congratulations on your graduation, the first major step toward this goal.
